

In Loving Memory of Landy Scott

June 21, 1919 – November 3, 2014

Landis George Scott "Landy" 95, of Greenfield, Wisconsin died November 3, 2014, of natural causes while surrounded by his family. He was born June 21, 1919 to the late George and Laura Schaetz in Oconto, Wisconsin.

Landy and his family moved to Milwaukee in 1929. At the young age of 14, Landy began his career as a carpenter working for his family and later as the foreman at Warnbrunn Construction where he worked for 25 years.

Landy's dreams for becoming a race car driver were interrupted when he was drafted into the Army Air Corps after the bombing of Pearl Harbor. While in the service Landy married Dorothy Cira of Milwaukee and began his family.

After receiving an honorable discharge from the service Landy bought his first midget race car and began his racing career. Landy raced at dirt tracks, including the Milwaukee Mile, throughout the mid-west for 15 years, winning the Badger Midget Auto Racing Association's 1947 Championship. Landy also served as the president of Badger (BMARA) from 1951 - 1959.

In 1977 Landy moved to Los Angeles, California where he worked as a carpenter and raised horses. He also lived in Las Vegas, Nevada before returning to his roots in Wisconsin in 2009.

Landy is survived by his six children; Michael, Lannis, Thomas, Daniel, Gary and Sharon, 10 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Landy was preceded in death by his wife Dorothy (d. 1982), the mother of his children, his second wife Elaine (d. 2009) and a grandson, Daniel Jr. (d. 2008).

In lieu of flowers, condolences or memories of Landy can be left on the Guestbook page at on his website: www.landyscott.com
